

2014 Fall Message From Edith...

The seasons come and go so quickly and this summer was no exception. It is difficult to believe that many of our seasonal residents have begun the transition of spending more time in the city than out at the lake.

This summer, our residents had the opportunity to experience several new events right here within our community. Yoga classes were taught at the covered community structure, the first Treasure Yard Sale was well received along with our first Movie Night. Our community events continue to grow and expand with new ideas, input and involvement. These individuals have come forward and with their enthusiasm are demonstrating a keen interest in bettering our community. The possibilities of what can happen when a community comes together are endless... the ideas that are floating around for next summer are exciting and fresh.

By keeping our residents informed through way of Newsletters, Alerts, Events Notifications, Special Bulletins, is one of biggest successes in bringing our community together. A big shout out to Anna Gunn, Vice President, who has taken on the role of producing these informative messages that are dispatched to your in-box. Lakeshore Heights is one of the few lakeside communities that have spent the time and energy to acquire an up to date data base of your current email address. Communication is essential and the Executive Team continues to make this one of our key priorities.

The new playground structure was definitely the highlight of this season. It is such a joy to walk by the park and see the children playing and having a good time. New friendships are being developed as kids play together. The vision has been to enhance the Main Playground area and within the past few years this has begun to take shape. Last year it was the completion of the beach stairs, this year the playground structure and plans for next year are to replace the benches and add a picnic table. These projects have been funded with your membership fees, donations and grants received from the Municipality. Together we can make a difference and continue to further enhance our community.

It goes without saying that all of this would not occur without the help of our volunteers. Many, many hours are put forth whether it is going door to door collecting memberships, organization and preparing for an event or with physical labour to prep a work site. The value of having a solid volunteer base is huge in getting things done on time and everyone benefits with the results. We cannot thank you enough.

Have a wonderful winter everyone, stay warm, keep safe and see you in the spring.

Regards, Edith...President Lakeshore Heights Association INC
